

“The Stateline’s Got Talent”

Contestant Guidelines

- “Participant” refers to an individual or group, as a talent can be submitted regardless of the number of people participating in the talent.
- Each person participating must pay a $10 non-refundable entrance fee. (Only acts rejected by the committee will be refunded)
- Advanced registration and acceptance is required, as space is limited! Questionnaires can be mailed to or dropped off at Acute Image 115 W Main St Rockton, IL 61072 along with the entrance fee (cash or check only- payable to the Rockton Chamber of Commerce).
- Participants can only participate in one act.
- Parent/guardian signatures are required for participants younger than 18 years old. For a group, each participant younger than 18 years old must have a parent/guardian signature.
- This is a family event. All talents and costumes must be G rated!
- Contestants must submit a questionnaire to be reviewed by the Stateline’s Got Talent Committee. The Committee has the right to refuse talents based on PAC rules, inappropriate behavior or any other reason deemed necessary.
- The judges reserve the right to stop any participant presenting inappropriate behavior or disobeying guidelines.
- Each participant will be given up to 4 minutes to perform. Participants taking longer than 4 minutes will be deducted points.
- If an act requires set up, clean up or additional equipment, participants must specify this on the questionnaire.
- A sound system and microphone will be provided. Chairs and stools are also available. Participants are responsible for any additional equipment needed for their talent.
- All rulings of the judges are final.
- Participants will be judged based the following criteria:
 - Visual- does it fit the type of performance?
 - Audio- does it fit the type of performance?
 - Creativity- does the performance show creativity and originality?
 - Overall Performance- the general impression of the judges
- In the event that entries are submitted after space is full, participants will be put on a waiting list on a first-come-first-serve basis and will not have to pay an entry fee unless they are contacted to perform.
- Immediate family members of judges are not eligible to participate.
- Participants must be prepared to perform twice, as the top 6 acts will be asked to perform a different act in the final elimination round. After this round, the top 3 acts will be recognized and awarded prizes. (For example, singers must sing 2 different songs)
- Participants must be prepared to answer improv questions from the emcee.
- Participants must be available for rehearsal Sunday, December 6th at 1 pm.
- If music is used in a talent, a copy must be provided to Acute Image no later than November 20th, 2009. (In order to be prepared for the final elimination round, it may be necessary to submit 2 separate songs). Participants may drop off or mail music copies to Acute Image along with their questionnaire and entrance fee.
